

Gabrielle Lucivero

2022 Spotlight Emcee

Gabrielle Lucivero is the lead sports anchor at NBC Connecticut. She's what they call in the industry a "one-woman-band", meaning she does it all: shoot, write, edit and report! She and her camera have traveled across the country following UConn Women's basketball and across the globe to the 2022 Winter Olympics in Beijing. A retired athlete herself -- figure skating -- Gabrielle is a proud supporter of women's sports, female athletes and increasing their exposure in the media.
